FROM THE ORGAN BENCH NO. 9 OF 14

Go to www.stjosephcolumbia.org/sacred-musicministry for From the Organ Bench Articles 1-7.

A little over three years after beginning a journey to discern God's will for a possible new pipe organ, our organ committee decided that the best possible choice of an organ builder was C.B. Fisk of Gloucester, Mass. We could now take our findings to parish leadership and continue the journey discerning God's will for a new pipe organ with a more focused vision.

An interesting fact that arose out of our experience that you may (or may not) find interesting... most American pipe organ firms only make a small percentage of their pipes these days. Most of the pipes are purchased from second-party suppliers and shipped via UPS or FedEx in cardboard boxes. The question became, "How can the words Pipe Organ Builder be justified if a company relies on second-party suppliers for most of their pipework?" Perhaps Pipe Organ Assemblers would be a more appropriate name? Or does it matter? There are very few pipe organ companies in the U.S.A. that still make 99-100% of their own pipes. C.B. Fisk is one of those companies. And yes, it does matter that a pipe organ builder makes its own pipes.

Stay tuned to learn why!
Brad Cunningham, Organist

BISHOP'S INVITATION FOR CONFIRMANDI

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

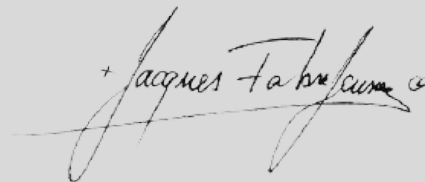

As a follow-up to the letter I wrote to you in June of this year, I am writing once again to check in and ask how you are doing. Have you been following your great commission to "go into the whole world and proclaim the Gospel?" (Mk 16:15). Have you been involved in parish life? Have you been faithfully attending/participating in Sunday liturgy?

I also want this letter to serve as a reminder that your faith journey is only beginning. Though you have entered the fullness of the Church, you still have your whole life ahead to discern your vocation and glorify God in every moment. I urge you to continue listening to the Holy Spirit and to be courageous and bold in the evangelization of your peers and families.

I invite you and your family to a special Mass in honor of all of those who have been confirmed this year. It will be celebrated at the Cathedral of St. John the Baptist in Charleston on Sunday, Nov. 5, at 2:00 p.m. I will preside at this Mass and Bishop emeritus Robert E. Guglielmone will be our homilist. We will also have a reception following. RSVP via the QR code listed below.

I look forward to this new opportunity to hear where the Lord has been leading you. Please be assured of my prayers for you. May God bless you, and may he give you the courage to do his will.

In Christ's love,

Most Rev. Jacques Fabre-Jeune, CS
Bishop of Charleston
