MUSICAM SACRAM

What is Sacred Music? #3 of 4

In the last two articles we have discussed the definition and introduced qualities of sacred music. Often, in church documents you will find three main qualities that are used to define sacred music: sanctity, intrinsic beauty, and universality. These three qualities, as expressed by Pope Pius X, have been quoted by popes, including Pope John Paul II and Benedict XVI, along with many other Bishops— recently by Archbishop Sample in his Pastoral Letter on Sacred Music in Divine Worship. As mentioned in previous articles, Sacred Music must possess qualities of Sanctity, which the Second Vatican Council defines as “[Music] considered the more holy in proportion as it is more closely connected with the liturgical action, whether it adds delight to prayer, fosters unity of minds, or confers greater solemnity upon the sacred rites (SC 112).”

Pope Pius X’s second quality of Sacred Music is Intrinsic Beauty. When we see sacred art we can easily identify artwork that is intrinsically beautiful. Archbishop Sample, in his Pastoral Letter on Sacred Music, quotes Pope Benedict XVI’s Address to priests at the Cathedral of Notre Dame, Paris, 13 September 2008 in which Benedict the XVI states, “Certainly, the beauty of our celebrations can never be sufficiently cultivated, fostered and refined, for nothing can be too beautiful for God, Who is Himself infinite Beauty. Yet our earthly liturgies will never be more than a pale reflection of the liturgy celebrated in the Jerusalem on high, the goal of our pilgrimage on earth. May our own celebrations nonetheless resemble that liturgy as closely as possible and grant us a foretaste of it!” Sacred Music must be a true and authentic art that through its richness and beautify resembles the beauty of the liturgy. Pope Francis stated, “Liturgical and sacred music can be a powerful instrument of evangelization, because it gives people a glimpse of the beauty of heaven.”

Next week we will cover the last quality of Sacred Music given to us by Pope Pius X, Universality. Stay tuned! St. Joseph... Pray for us!

FROM THE ORGAN BENCH

We found our “Miss Jackson” #3 of 3

If you or your children were involved with St. Joseph parochial school in the mid-late 1970s, you probably knew Margaret Jackson. She poured her heart and soul into helping children make music at the school, at one time involving around 100 children.

The children’s choirs sang once a month in Mass. If your child took piano lessons at the school, Margaret was the piano teacher! We’d love to hear from you if you remember Miss Jackson! [(brad@stjosephcolumbia.org)]

Margaret entered the Catholic Church in 1977 and married in 1979 while at St. Joseph. Margaret fondly recalls Alice Abdalla who sang in the choir and who was her oldest son’s godmother. Meanwhile, life moved on. Margaret, her husband, and two young boys moved to New Jersey after Easter 1981, where she was only 50 miles from New York City and in close proximity to Westminster Choir College in Princeton. She was in music heaven! After three years of living in New Jersey, Margaret and her family moved to the Metropolitan Atlanta area where she continued to serve the Catholic Church as church musician until her retirement in 2017. Margaret continues to substitute as organist in the Atlanta area. Margaret will be a grandmother very soon and is excited about the new addition to her family! I hope you enjoyed catching up with our “Miss Jackson!” Brad Cunningham, Organist

In his Apostolic Letter “Patris corde” (“With a Father’s Heart”), Pope Francis has proclaimed a Year of St. Joseph from Dec. 8, 2020, to Dec. 8, 2021.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

Vacation Bible School has always been a beloved summer program offered to our parishioners and their guests. While at VBS, children encounter stories from the Bible, meet new children, have a good time with friends, and experience new and fun activities. They learn Bible verses, act out Bible stories, sing fun educational songs, watch and participate in skits, create crafts, participate in recreation, take part in hands-on mission projects, discover science activities, and have a snack or a meal.

With the limitations of COVID-19, we are exploring options to continue this tradition in a safe manner. We are looking for families interested in spearheading this effort and/or volunteering. Options may include a "at home version" for summer of 2021 and/or preparation for a traditional VBS experience for summer of 2022. If this is a ministry that interests you please contact Adrienne Carroll at adrienne@stjosephcolumbia.org or call our church office at 803.254.7646.

FORMED NOW!

WHO IS ST. CATHERINE OF SIENA?

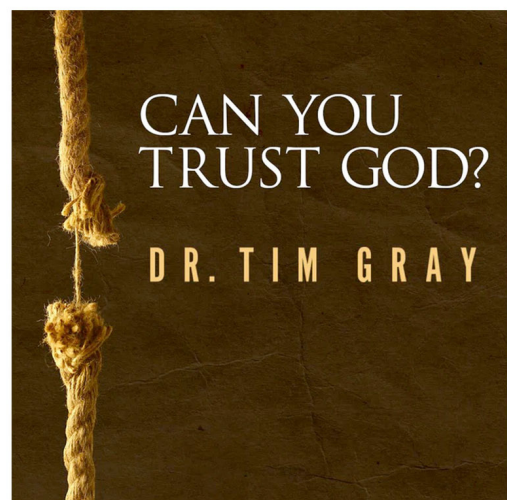

In light of St. Catherine of Siena's feast day, join Dr. Tim Gray and Dr. Elizabeth Klein as they celebrate this holy woman: a nurse and mystic with papal influence who became a doctor of the Church.

LEARN

CAN YOU TRUST GOD?

BY DR. TIM GRAY

To be a saint, we must trust God wholeheartedly. Since the fall of our first parents, however, humanity has been tempted to mistrust the Father's love for us. Scripture scholar Dr. Tim Gray takes us on a journey that addresses the pervasive misconceptions about God, showing us that there is no reason not to follow him.
