On Tuesday, June 9, South Carolinians will enter polling stations for primary elections across the state. We will vote for those who may hold political office in our state and Washington, D.C., for the next two years or longer.

As Catholics, we have the benefit of the Church's Magisterium endowed upon her by Christ, which assists us in understanding the natural, moral law as it relates to specific issues. We have an obligation as Catholics also to be correctly informed and educated by the Church's teaching so that we may vote with our consciences.

Below is the Simply Catholic voter guide for the faithful in our parishes, schools and ministries. Please remember to vote on Tuesday, June 9, 2020!
