FROM THE ORGAN BENCH
NO. 5 OF 14

Go to www.stjosephcolumbia.org/blog-from-the-organ-bench for Organ Articles No. 1-4.

The first order of business for the organ committee was to find answers to these questions: Was the old organ a noteworthy instrument? Was it adequate for Catholic liturgy needs? If not, can we add new voices to the old ones?

The now-failed St. Joseph pipe organ which has not been heard of since 2009, was manufactured by M.P. Möller Co. Möller was a factory-driven organ builder, meaning sales reps took orders for new pipe organs, handed them to the factory, and workers pulled already-made pipes off shelves in a warehouse. Möller's factory-driven, competitive mass-production approach to selling pipe organs resulted in thousands of installations around the U.S.A. but it is commonly accepted that the company never achieved noteworthy status. Möller closed its doors in 1992.

Our Möller organ contains only 17 independent voices. "Voices" on an organ have to do with the palate of available, different sounds. The more voices available, the more musical variety, interest, mystery, awe, and power can be created during the Mass. Due to the very small number of independent voices, the old organ, again, is not a noteworthy instrument. Also, its voices were more suited for a Protestant/Lutheran worship liturgy. New voices can be added to the old organ. However, next week's From the Organ Bench will explain why it was determined this is not the best idea. – Brad Cunningham

God's Love Poured Out | Episode 1

During the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, we remember a fundamental pillar of our Faith: "God is love" (1 Jn 4:8). This simple statement is the beginning and the ending of our pilgrimage of Faith. In this episode of The Wild Goose, join Fr. Dave Pivonka as he illuminates God's eternal pouring out of Love.

The Journey: Trinity, Faith

The Bible reveals the mystery of who God is: God is love. God created us out of love, died for us out of love, and invites us on a journey of faith in which we live in his love. In this study, we'll look at the God who is Love and how that love shows itself in the Trinity and the Faith.

Joyful Mysteries

As we celebrate the Visitation this week, we invite you to pray the Joyful Mysteries alongside this spoken Rosary set to music. Enter into some of the most joy-filled moments of Our Lord Jesus Christ's life, alongside the Blessed Virgin, through this devotional prayer and accompanying Scripture passages.
